

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. The limited number of calls that my father, who is 87, and myself get has diminished considerably! Older folks have a lot of trouble getting up and down to answer their phone all the time.